Former Basketball Player Charged with West Hollywood Assault

An ex-professional basketball player has been charged with the felony assault of a man outside of a West Hollywood club, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Ronald Glen Davis (dob 1/1/86) of Tarzana faces one count of assault by means of force likely to produce great bodily injury. The charge includes an allegation of causing great bodily injury.

Arraignment is scheduled for today in Department W30 of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, Airport Branch. Case SA098144 was filed on June 5.

Davis allegedly threw a victim into a wall during an altercation outside of a club in the 600 block of Robertson Boulevard on April 8, prosecutors said.

If convicted as charged, Davis faces a possible maximum sentence of seven years in state prison.

The case remains under investigation by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, West Hollywood Station.
