Public Safety Instructor Charged in Child Sex Case

A 38-year-old public safety instructor accused of having sexual contact with an underage victim was charged today with multiple felony counts, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Deputy District Attorney Alice Kurs said Delvon Christopher Jackson (dob 7/13/75) is charged in case GA091268 with three counts of lewd act upon a child and one count of sexual penetration by a foreign object.

Jackson of Carson is scheduled to be arraigned this afternoon at Department 1 of Los Angeles Superior Court, Glendale Branch.

The defendant is accused of engaging in sexual acts with the female victim on three separate occasions at Herbert Hoover High School in Glendale. The alleged offenses occurred between Oct. 1 and Oct. 14.

Jackson is a Regional Occupational Program instructor at the high school.

Prosecutors have recommended that the defendant's bail be set at $400,000. If convicted as charged the defendant faces a maximum state prison sentence of five years.

The case remains under investigation by the Glendale Police Department.
